

The Independent Weekly, August 22-28, 2008

Grope Hamilton team: Mark Hamilton, Nick Baldock, Peter Grope, Kaylene Leopold, Michael Hourigan and Jeni Branolt

New-look lawyers

Grope Hamilton will unveil its new branding tonight, giving the firm a bright and contemporary new look.

Managing partner Mark Hamilton said the firm wanted to develop a brand that reflected its progressive approach.

Grope Hamilton started more than 20 years ago and has developed into one of the leading boutique commercial law firms in Adelaide.

"Now is the time to take on a new look while maintaining our commitment to providing the highest level of prompt, personalised and cost effective advice and representation," Mr Hamilton said.

Grope Hamilton specialises in a range of legal services including commercial and residential conveyancing, commercial leasing services, wine law and liquor and gaming transactions.

Mr Hamilton said the firm used a small panel of selected barristers, with expertise in their areas of speciality.

"If a client has a commercial or business dispute, we will proactively seek a prompt commercial resolution; if that is possible, and in the client's best interests. If not, we will run the client's litigation matter hard, fast and smart. We want to be known for this," Mr Hamilton said.

"By combining big firm experience with attention to detail, we find effective solutions for our clients."

Current projects include all legal work for the Brompton Redevelopment housing project for Land Management Corporation and acting for the owner of the Beachhouse at Glenelg in a building dispute against Baulderstone Hornibrook and a joint venture associated with Urban Construct.

The launch will be held at the Apothecary 1878 with invited guests including Alexander Downer, Jane Lomax-Smith and Michael Harbison.